

PUBLIC MEETING NOTICE

River's Edge: Permanent Supportive Housing Development

The Fort Wayne Housing Authority (FWHA) will host a public meeting with their co-developer, UP Development, to discuss the permanent supportive housing development, River's Edge. The workshop will be held Tuesday, October 24, 2017 and Monday, October 30, 2017 at 5:30pm at the Fort Wayne Housing Authority, located at 7315 Hanna Street, Fort Wayne, Indiana, 46816. Please contact the Fort Wayne Housing Authority at (260) 267-9300 ext. 7100 with questions or to request an accommodation to fully participate in this meeting.

About Fort Wayne Housing Authority

As an entity of the City of Fort Wayne, the Fort Wayne Housing Authority's mission is to revitalize the city of Fort Wayne by building and developing safe, quality, affordable housing options, while providing programs to foster community, alleviate poverty and encourage long-term economic self-sufficiency.

The FWHA serves more than 3,500 low-income families, including over 2,800 families who participate in the Housing Choice Voucher Program (HCVP) and another 799 families residing in Public Housing and Tax Credit developments around the city.
